NOTICE TO PRACTITIONERS

Reopening of practitioner court document collection boxes

Law firms are advised that from 9am on Monday 20 July 2020 the self-serve court collection boxes will reopen. All legal firms who have a collection box in the law courts building will be required to collect and clear their boxes in person. Documents will no longer be posted by the court to those firms.

Persons collecting documents must adhere to social distancing and abide by COVID-19 signage when attending to clear boxes.
